Excellence in Postdoctoral Mentoring Award

The Excellence in Postdoctoral Mentoring Award recognizes a faculty member who provides exceptional mentoring to postdoctoral scholars.

Eligibility
To be eligible for nomination, the individual must be a full-time faculty member at the University of Arizona.

The nomination must be submitted by a University of Arizona postdoctoral scholar (or more than one postdoctoral scholar) with the title of Postdoctoral Research Associate or another approved job title. (For approval, contact Jenny Hoit at hoit@email.arizona.edu)

Nomination Process
The nominator(s) must submit a letter that describes how the mentor:

- Provides intellectual leadership in research/creative endeavors;
- Creates a supportive training environment for postdoctoral scholars;
- Provides regular and constructive feedback to postdoctoral scholars;
- Helps postdoctoral scholars develop their independent careers.

The letter may be no longer than two pages.

Only one nomination letter may be submitted for a given faculty member.

More than one postdoctoral scholar may sign the nomination letter.

* Nomination letters are due February 1, 2019 *

Email the nomination letter to:
Jenny Hoit, Director, Postdoctoral Affairs (hoit@email.arizona.edu).

This award will be recognized at the annual Awards of Distinction Luncheon and Ceremony held in Spring 2019. The recipient will receive $1000 and a plaque.
